

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. Sinclair's actions do not serve the public interest and by allowing their actions the FCC does not seem to be protecting the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.